

Memorial Service for Chet Warman November 8

Chester Warman, 64, of Killington, VT formerly of Hartford, CT passed away, (October 13, 2008) in a bicycle accident in Moab, UT. Born August 3, 1944 in Hartford, CT the son of the late Chester Warman, Sr. of Omaha, NE, and Gertrude Loiseau Warman of Manchester, CT. He is survived by his sisters, Nancy McLean and husband Mark of East Hampton, CT, Carolyn Estabrook of Houlton, ME, and Delores Cyr and husband Lynwood of Madison, AL; his beloved niece ("nice") Renee Sweet and husband Ben of Marlborough, CT; as well as several other nieces and nephews including, Maxwell McLean of Canton, CT. He will also be missed by his "extended" family, Joseph DeSena of Pittsfield, VT, Curt Southall of Moab, UT, Chris Mitchell of Boston, MA, and his friends in the Killington Pico Cycling Club in Killington, VT. Chet's thirst for knowledge was unquenchable, but his passion was bicycle racing.

He won over 30 races throughout the years. He placed 2nd in the UMCA North American 24 Hour Championship race in Schuylerville, NY July 2008 and had just completed a 3,000 mile bike trip from Pittsfield, VT to San Clarita, CA--the best ride of his life! There will be a Memorial Service at 5:00 p.m. at Chet's cabin just off the Killington Road on November 8.

Have Some Form of Depression Do you?

conducting a clinical research study
over 18 and are experiencing symptoms be eligible to participate.

Symptoms:

Irritability

Change in Appetite

Hopeless Feelings

857-2338

inVermont.com

ates, Woodstock, Vermont